August 2024

Att. Iovino Gaetano

Dear Gaetano,

The 2024 International System Dynamics Conference Team would like to thank you for your presentation at this year's conference. Your presentation, as detailed below, served as an important component of our program.

Presentation Title:

Dynamic Analysis of the Workforce Pattern in Construction Process

The conference brought together over 500 people working in System Dynamics and systems thinking. Presentations by practitioners and leaders in the field covered a wide variety of topics and demonstrated the state of the art in the theory and application of System Dynamics.

We hope that you enjoyed the program and wish to see you next year in Schaumburg, US for the 2025 International System Dynamics Conference.

Warm regards,

International Conference of the System Dynamics Society

Rebecca Niles

Executive Director and Conference Manager
